Past Week Accomplishments

- Controllers/Views - PJ
    - Created ManageUsers Controller
    - Index view for admin and manage users
    - Edit view for manage users
    - Categories Controller
- Cole
    - Created a system to render one main view and then use the other elements as partial views to allow for a modular dashboard.
    - Got a general template page
- Sebastian
    - Improved UI of Login/Register and related views
    - Finishing up Site settings controller to manage blog settings (mostly UI finish)
    - Added sorting of posts by most recent, least recent, and highest rated
- Thien
    - Added post redirecting and view pages
    - Shrink posts to continue on new page
    - Started on visuals of home and post pages
- Carter
    - Worked through learning where everything was currently at in the project as far as progress and what needs to be worked on in the following weeks.
    - Spent some time learning the easiest way to store images either in the SQL database as blobs or if a file server would be a better solution.
    - Found easy ways to implement using a byte [] to do the SQL method.
