Plans for Coming Week

- Cole
 - Began working on themes, looking at BlogEngine a little to get a good idea of how Cylosoft used themes previously to make transitioning easy.
 - Going to message Cylosoft designers to assist in planning out good designs to offer.
 - Touch up a few of the buggy responsive areas where buttons can get out of line
- PJ
 - Continue the creation of controllers for categories/tags
 - Add an additional “display name” field to AspNetUser
 - Polish up previous created views
 - Add security functionality
 - Ability to delete multiple users
 - JQuery dialog for deleting users
- Sebastian
 - Extend Settings controller and merge with master
 - Finish unit tests for settings
 - Change Login UI to match rest of site
- Thien
 - Fix up all problems with profiles
 - Continue on profiles page and its functionalities
 - If profile is in a good state, get back on commenting
- Carter
 - Implementing the SQL update given the image provided in the editor.
 - Working on any other work for controllers
